Our Lady of Guadalupe Seminary

In 1993, the Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter established its international seminary for English-speaking candidates. The seminary was named for Our Lady of Guadalupe, in honor of her title as the Patroness of the Americas.

The initial location of the seminary was in the North American District headquarters

The initial location was in the North American District headquarters building in Elmhurst, Pennsylvania, through the courtesy of the local Bishop.

As the enrollment increased, the need for a new and permanent location resulted in the generous invitation of His Excellency, Fabian W. Bruskewitz, Bishop of Lincoln, to locate in the Lincoln Diocese.
